STRATEGIC PLANNING PROCESS

THE WEISS GROUP’S APPROACH

• We provide a framework but this is your work — you wrote it, you own it
• Put self-interest aside and focus on the shared interest of the District and its colleges
• The finished product is authentic to your organization
IMPORTANCE AND BENEFITS OF PLANNING

• Shapes and guides what an organization is, what it does, and why it does it
• Focuses on the big-picture goals and needs of an organization
• Should influence resource allocations and budgeting
• Creates transparency, accountability, and clarity
THE STRATEGIC PLAN IS YOUR ROAD MAP
THE BOARD’S ROLE IN PLANNING

• Actively participate in strategic planning discussions
• Develop shared vision and inspiring mission
• Drive organizational priorities and resource allocation
• Approve the plan
• Track and evaluate success in achieving goals and objectives
SUCCESSFUL STRATEGIC PLANS

• Keep it simple so the plan is easily understood and sustainable
• Developed through a participatory process that involves the entire organization
• Are dynamic, living documents — not rigid or “set in stone”
• Require organization-wide commitment
WHERE IS YOUR ORGANIZATION?

“business as usual”  “pushing the edge”
STRATEGIC PLAN ELEMENTS
PLANNING DEFINITIONS

• MISSION: Why you exist
• VISION: What we want to be
• VALUES: What we believe and what is important to us as an organization
• GOAL: What we want to achieve
• INDICATORS OF ACHIEVEMENT: A measurable outcome or objective
• STRATEGY: How we’ll achieve the goal
MISSION

An inspiring statement that describes what services you provide, identifies who receives your services and describes how these services are provided.
